

Wild Rose Case Study Grant Application

IAP2 Wild Rose Chapter Is offering up to five grants of $500.00 to chapter members for case studies of public engagement projects that the chapter can make available as a resource to the membership. The case studies should reflect IAP2 Core Values and serve as a learning opportunity for P2 practitioners.

To apply for the grant, complete this application and submit it to Terry Williams (twilliams@maze.ab.ca) by January 31, 2010. Case Studies will be evaluated on the following criteria:

- Uniqueness of the project: what makes this project special? e.g. an innovative or novel situation/technique/approach to public participation.
- How well does the case study demonstrate application of IAP2 core values?
- Does the project have broad appeal across the range of P2 practitioners?
- Does the case study further the P2 Body of Knowledge? How well does it demonstrate learnings that may be useful to P2 practitioners?
- There were successful outcomes on at least one aspect of P2.

Winners will be notified by March 15, 2010 and will be announced at the AGM. Winners will be responsible for submitting a completed case study using a case study template that will be supplied, no later than May 31, 2010. Grants will be paid on submission and approval of the case study. Individual applicants are limited to two grant applications. Case studies will become the property of IAP2 Wild Rose.

Applicant Information

Name

Organization

Mailing Address

Daytime Phone

Email

Project Overview

What was the key question or problem?

Identify the main project challenges

Identify any project opportunities

Identify stakeholders groups that were engaged

Briefly describe the approach taken

Identify key tools and techniques used and, if appropriate, how their use was unique or innovative

Identify the results or outcomes of the project

Identify key learnings of the case study

Start Date

End Date

Core Values

Identify how the project reflects and/or promotes IAP2 Core Values (address any that apply).

1. Public participation is based on the belief that those who are affected by a decision have a right to be involved in the decision-making process.

2. Public participation includes the promise that the public's contribution will influence the decision.

3. Public participation promotes sustainable decisions by recognizing and communicating the needs and interests of all participants, including decision makers.

4. Public participation seeks out and facilitates the involvement of those potentially affected by or interested in a decision

5. Public participation seeks input from participants in designing how they participate.

6. Public participation provides participants with the information they need to participate in a meaningful way.

7. Public participation communicates to participants how their input affected the decision.